Activity during Year

In addition to the usual talks and events that were arranged, the following points are worthy of note.

- Member Interest Group

The Society has continued to be a Member Interest Group (“MIG”) of the Actuarial Profession. This is the annual statement that the Society is required to make as part of the requirements of being an MIG.

- Website

A comprehensive website setting out details on the Committee, our Diary, Information for Students, the Bristol Actuarial Dining Society (BADs), the History of the Society, and the Governing Documents (such as the Rules and minutes of AGMs) has been maintained.

Thanks

Our thanks go to these organisations that have generously supported the Society during the year:

- EY, PwC, and KPMG for providing accommodation for the Society's talks;
- Aon, Aviva, Barnett Waddingham, Broadstone, Canada Life, Ernst & Young, Lloyds Banking Group, KPMG, PwC, Sanlam and Willis Towers Watson for providing committee members;
- Burges Salmon, Ernst & Young, PwC and the University of Bristol for providing speakers;
- Rock Services Limited for helping to organise our social events; and
- Broadstone for the development, maintenance and hosting of the Bristol Actuarial Society website.
